MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER OF DETENTION PENDING TRIAL

A show cause hearing was held today in accordance with the Bail Reform Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f) and 18 U.S.C. § 3148. Defendant was previously granted a bond after a detention hearing was held on September 25, 2020. A petition for action on pretrial release was filed February 1, 2021 with the Court alleging that Defendant violated condition (1) of his bond conditions ordering that she not violate federal, state, or local law while on release. The specific allegations are included at docket entry 70 in this case.

The following requires detention of the defendant pending trial in this case:

(1) There is clear and convincing evidence that the Defendant has violated the condition of release;

(2) Based on the factors in section 3142(g) of Title 18, there is no condition or combination of conditions of release that will assure that the Defendant will not flee or pose a danger to the safety of any other person or the community; and

(3) Defendant is unlikely to abide by any condition or combination of conditions of release.

The evidence against the defendant meets the probable cause standard. Defendant also entered a plea of true to the allegations. She is a poor candidate for bond.

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Marshal or his designated representative for confinement in a corrections facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal. The defendant shall be afforded a reasonable opportunity for private consultation with defense counsel. On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility shall deliver the defendant to the United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding.

ORDERED on March 12, 2021.
